NED HARRIGANS TO RALLY.

014 Timers to Hear Old Time Songs

The shade of old Ned Harrigan will be invoked and the spirit of song and humor and sentiment will be afoat on Sunday. The Ned Harrigan Club (Inc.) will have an outing at Port-Au-Peck. Teasure Bay, N. J., on that day. The teasure Little Silver will carry 300 of he best known New Yorkers and traham's Band. There will be just uch a time as Ned Harrigan would

At the park a clambake will be held on the banks of the Shrewsbury River. Then will follow singing of "Old Har-Then will follow singing of "Old Harvard" and "My Dad's Dinner Pail,"
"Slavery Days" and "Sunday Night
When the Parior's Full," "The Mullisan Guard," "Brannigan's Band,"
"Where Poverty's Tears Ebb and Flow,"
"Paddy Duffy's Cart," "The Order of Full Moons"—all the old songs which made Ned Harrigan the popular idol of the people he loved and the people who loved him, The peerless Joe Humphrays will be master of ceremonies.

NOTES OF THE THEATRES.

Selwyn & Co. have engaged Jane Burr for their forthcoming produc-tion of "The Salamander," dramatised from Owen Johnson's novel. In private life Miss Burr is Mrs. Horace G. Winslow, wife of the editor of The Masses. Before her first marriage, which was t Jack Punch, of St. Louis, she was Resalind Guggenbeim, one of the well-known Guggen-beim family.

Th. Co-operative Producing Company, formed to be a clearing house for vaudeville, dramatic, stock and moving picture productions, has begun operations in the local field. A. S. Stern is president.

The first performance of "He Comes Up Smiling," with Douglas Fairbanks as the hero, will be next Wednesday night at the Liberty Theatre. The change from the previously announced date is to avoid conflict with other openings.

Ber Jehnson has been engaged for one of the important roles in "Wanted, $22,000."

Frank Vernon, the English stage manager, is in New York to confer with Joseph Brooks about the forth-coming production of "My Lady's IT MAKES LITTLE DIFFERENCE WHAT YOU NEED, Dress."

Bent Bones That Wore Bent

POINTED shoes are what make all bent bones, corns, bunions, ingrowing nails, callouses, flat feet, fatigue, and all the ills that feet are heir to.

That Grow Straight EDUCATORS prevent, relieve or free your feet from bent bones, corns, bunions, ingrowing nails, etc., because they let the feet grow as they should.
